In October 2020 we had an engagement with the Getlink CEO and CFO, both newly appointed. We reiterated our belief that an ESG investor day to communicate Getlink's green transport credentials would be positively received by the equity market and could even lead to increased usage of its lower-carbon rail services as shippers worked to lower their emissions. We encouraged a presentation model of communicating as more investor-useful than a large annual report. Getlink was receptive to the idea and shared that it had appointed a new Corporate Responsibility Director to conduct ESG studies.
